The Summons

1 Will you come and follow me
if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know
and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown
in you and you in me.

2 Will you leave yourself behind
if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and Kind
and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare
should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer
in you and you in me?

3 Will you let the blinded see
if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free
and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean,
and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean
in you and you in me?

4 Will you love the "you" you hide
if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside
and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found
to reshape the world around,
through my sight and touch and sound
in you and you in me?

The Story Behind.....

The Summons

The Summons is about the calling of all people to follow God's call to become themselves more fully. To "care for cruel and kind" and to "never be the same." In this song the call to service is one that is transformational—when we accept Christ's calling to come and be where God is already, our lives are shaped by the experience.

The hymn's text is based on Mark 1:16–20 and includes 13 questions asked by Jesus. The text is prophetic and uses words that are uncommon in other hymns. The last line of each verse also echoes the mutual nature of how God works in us and through us and through God we find our living, our moving, and our being.

The lyrics for this song come out of the Iona Community in Scotland where writer and musician John Bell lives and works. The music is from a traditional Scottish tune called "Kelvingrove."

Old Testament Reading:

Job 23:1-9, 16-17

Then Job answered:

<sup>2</sup> “Today also my complaint is bitter,
his hand is heavy in spite of my groaning.

<sup>3</sup> Oh, that I knew where I might find him,
that I might come even to his seat!

<sup>4</sup> I would lay my case before him
and fill my mouth with arguments.

<sup>5</sup> I would learn what he would answer me,
and understand what he would say to me.

<sup>6</sup> Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?
No; he would give heed to me.

<sup>7</sup> There an upright man could reason with him,
and I should be acquitted for ever by my judge.

<sup>8</sup> “Behold, I go forward, but he is not there;
and backward, but I cannot perceive him;

<sup>9</sup> on the left hand I seek him, but I cannot behold him;
turn to the right hand, but I cannot see him.

<sup>16</sup> God has made my heart faint;
the Almighty has terrified me;

<sup>17</sup> for I am hemmed in by darkness,
and thick darkness covers my face

New Testament

Reading:

Mark 10:17-31

<sup>38</sup> <sup>17</sup> And as he was setting out on his journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” <sup>18</sup> And Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. <sup>19</sup> You know the commandments: ‘Do not kill, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother.’” <sup>20</sup> And he said to him, “Teacher, all these I have observed from my youth.” <sup>21</sup> And Jesus looking upon him loved him, and said to him, “You lack one thing; go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.” <sup>22</sup> At that saying his countenance fell, and he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions.

<sup>23</sup> And Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it will be for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!” <sup>24</sup> And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup> It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.” <sup>26</sup> And they were exceedingly astonished, and said to him, “Then who can be saved?” <sup>27</sup> Jesus looked at them and said, “With men it is impossible, but not with God; for all things are possible with God.” <sup>28</sup> Peter began to say to him, “Lo, we have left everything and followed you.” <sup>29</sup> Jesus said, “Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands, for my sake and for the gospel, <sup>30</sup> who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life. <sup>31</sup> But many that are first will be last, and the last first.”

Hymns:

#514 “Blessed Assurance”

1 Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine!
O what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God,
born of his Spirit, washed in his blood.

[Refrain:]

This is my story, this is my song,
praising my Savior all the day long;
this is my story, this is my song,
praising my Savior all the day long.

2 Perfect submission, perfect delight,
visions of rapture now burst on my sight;
angels descending, bring from above
echoes of mercy, whispers of love. (Refrain)

3 Perfect submission, all is at rest,
I in my Savior am happy and blest,
watching and waiting, looking above,
filled with his goodness, lost in his love. (Refrain)

#519 “It is Well with My Soul”

1 When peace like a river attendeth my way,
when sorrows like sea billows roll,
whatever my lot, thou hast taught me to say,
"It is well, it is well with my soul."

Refrain:

It is well with my soul;
it is well, it is well with my soul.

2 Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
let this blest assurance control:
that Christ has regarded my helpless estate,
and has shed his own blood for my soul. (Refrain)
